Dr. Hamstra’s research addresses the validity of competency assessments for medical residents, as well as the effectiveness of simulation for teaching and assessment. He is currently VP for Milestones Research and Evaluation at the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME), which sets accreditation standards and accredits over 9000 residency training programs in the US across more than 140 medical specialties.

STANLEY J. HAMSTRA, PH.D
VICE PRESIDENT, MILESTONE RESEARCH AND EVALUATION
ACCREDITATION COUNCIL FOR GRADUATE MEDICAL EDUCATION,
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

CBME WORKSHOP:
DEVELOPING SCHOLARSHIP BASED ON YOUR PASSION FOR IMPROVING EDUCATION

hosted by Postgraduate Medical Education and the Program for Educational Research and Development

THURSDAY MAY 5TH, 9:30AM - 3:00PM
DBHSC 2032

RSVP at http://cbme-workshop.eventbrite.ca