INTRODUCTION:

The Department of Radiology Academic Council is an advisory to the Chair of the Department of Radiology, McMaster University, in all matters pertaining to research, education, and standards of radiology practice. It may also be asked to advise on other matters of importance to the department.

OBJECTIVES:

1. To promote and sustain the development of strategic planning for research in all areas of the department.
2. To develop and promote an educational role for all members of the department.
3. To establish manpower priorities in clinical service, research, and teaching within the department.
4. To support and promote effective communication in the department.
5. Tenure and Promotion

MEMBERSHIP:

1. Chair of the Department of Radiology
2. Undergraduate Program Director
3. Chair of the Research Committee
4. Department Education Coordinator
5. Program Director, Radiology Residency
6. Chiefs of Departments of Radiology in the four teaching hospitals (McMaster University Medical Centre, Hamilton General Hospital, Juravinski Hospital, St. Joseph’s Healthcare)
7. Chief of Nuclear Medicine
8. Fellowship Program Director

MEETINGS AND COMMUNICATIONS OF THE MINUTES:

1. The Academic Council of the Department of Radiology shall meet four times during the academic year.
2. The minutes of the Academic Council will be circulated to all members of the Department.
3. The subcommittees of the Department will periodically report to the Council. At this time, those committees are: Residency Program Committee, Research Committee, CME committee, Fellowship committee.